

Do not change the present rules. America has an exemplary history of a free, diverse, unpoliticized press. It is undemocratic to allow giant monopolies to control airwaves.